THE WORSHIP OF GOD

Epiphany IV

BAPTIST MEN'S SUNDAY

January 29, 2012

A Gathering Declaration

"The good news of the resurrection of Jesus is not that we shall die and go home to be with him, but that he has risen and comes home with us, bringing all his hungry, naked, thirsty, sick prisoner brothers and sisters with him."

~ Clarence Jordan

Greeting John Whitley

Call to Worship Will Stevens

God chooses to love us and draw us near.
God invites to enjoy the good around us.

We are grateful for food, shelter, and family.
God enriches our lives with many opportunities.

Let us renew our vows to God in this hour.
May thanks-giving overflow in acts of kindness.

We are here to remember and find renewal.
We have come to listen to God's word.

*Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name.
Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: for Thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory forever. Amen.*

Prayer of Confession David Grady

Forgive us, Lord, for ignoring the apostle Paul's honest warning that "those who sow sparingly will also reap sparingly." How profoundly silly we must appear to you, we who call ourselves the church, when we form a pious circle facing inward, concerned mainly over meeting our own needs and paying our own bills, then wondering why folks aren't breaking down the doors of the sanctuary to join us. Have mercy, we pray. Amen.

Assurance of Pardon Ryan Chambers

I have good news: Paul also promises "the one who sows bountifully will reap bountifully," that God will bless generosity of spirit and possessions, will love a cheerful giver, and will faithfully multiply the harvest of souls and grant an abundance of everything we truly need. Turn from your cautious, tentative discipleship and take God at His word. Amen.
